WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 24, 1902.

THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION .- At the annual convention of the Medical Society of the Missouri Valley, including Iowa, Nebraska and Missouri, held at Sioux City last week, Dr. R. C. Moore, of Omaha, president of the society, read a paper in which he declared that climatic conditions have absolutely nothing to do with successful treatment of pulmo ary consumption.

Not only did he maintain that the superior climatic con it ons of the outhwestern States for treatment of consumption were pure fiction, but he declared that there was greater danger in those States be ause of liability of infection from the thouse ids of consumptive patients that go there yearly.

"Statistics demonstrate beyond a doubt," he said, "that climatic conditions, weather, temperature, have no effect on tuberculosis.

In supporting this he referred to the sanitaciums for consumptives at Putland, Mass., and at Fort Bayard, N. M. According to his figures the petcentage of deaths from tuber dosis in New Mexico is 10, as compared with 11 at Rutland. The number of cases showing improvement was 37 per cent, at Rutland and 33 at Fort Bayard

Dr. Moore advocated the establishmen States sanitariums throughout the United State for the treatment of con-

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when edi-tor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one one the route. I made the trip successfully, and never telt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me." ale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Beware of the Knife.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of hate than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequalled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. For sale by E.
